BIOGRAPHY

In 2014, Justina immersed herself in all aspects of the family business her grandfather had built from the ground up, laying the foundation for her future endeavors and instilling a deep appreciation for her family's legacy.

After graduating from the University of Hartford in 2018, Justina eagerly took the reins to guide the family business into a new era. Her relentless work ethic and determination earned her a promotion to Vice President in 2019, where she now oversees daily operations alongside the President. Her expertise in marketing and human resources ensures the continued growth and success of the business while upholding her grandfather's legacy.

Beyond her professional achievements, Justina serves as President of the Curtis & Sheila Robinson Foundation. Dedicated to giving back, she tirelessly facilitates charitable community engagement, planning and executing events to support those in need. The foundation's mission to create a supportive environment aligns perfectly with her values of survival, sustainability, and community success. Justina Torello exemplifies dedication to excellence in both business and philanthropy, positively impacting the world while honoring her family's legacy of hard work, compassion, and service.
